The joy is big but followed with an extreme responsibility of this international distinction as one of the best companies to work in Europe! The fact that we are the only company (IT Systems & Cybersecurity Integrator) in our field in Greece, accomplishing such an achievement makes this distinction even more special! "With compass our values we managed to get through these difficult times without much impact on our business model and we owe this nowhere but to our people - the Pylonees!" stated Mr. Emmanuel Netos, CEO of Pylones Hellas.

Ms. Nelli Dedemadi, HR Manager of Pylones Hellas, referring to the certification, stressed that "We are grateful for the trust and respect we receive from our employees, as they constitute our driving force!
